

KLOVE radio station is a big part of my daily life. I listen to it at work and at home. There are no other Christian radio stations that play the music KLOVE does. Also they don't have any commercials, and I love that. I know quite a few people who listen to KLOVE and we would all be very disappointed to lose our station.